

Product Design Intern (f/m/d)

MARCH 2025 - AUGUST 2025

Join our creative journey as an industrial design intern!

Are you passionate about creating design that inspires?

Noto is a design studio with focus on bringing product experiences to life. We are based in a beautiful old factory in Cologne Germany with a great atmosphere where you are surrounded by talents that like to push the boundaries.

Why intern with us?

☀️ Inspire & be inspired:

From brainstorming sessions to hands-on projects, you'll explore the latest trends and technologies that drive product excellence.

🎨 Hands-on experience:

With over 20 years of expertise, you'll work alongside talented creatives that bring exciting products to life.

💛 Collaborative environment:

Join a diverse, open-minded team where your ideas matter. Collaborate respectfully to create unique designs that resonate with users' needs, emotions, and expectations.

💡 Creative impact:

Work on projects that not only push the boundaries of design, but help to improve the way people live, work, and play.

🍷 Community & fun:

Enjoy delicious meals from our in-house chef, try to beat the seniors in table tennis, and engage in fun after-work activities.

Who you are:

- A curious mind, always looking for new inspiration and excited about breaking with the status quo.
- A creative thinker with a passion for creating the unexpected.
- A positive team player who enjoys working collaboratively and pro actively helps to move things forward.
- Skilled in visualizing and communicating ideas effectively, with strong proficiency in Adobe CC, CAD and rendering.
- Confident in spoken and written English, and comfortable preparing presentations.
- On top, we are always curious about additional fun skills such as film, photography or making cocktails.

What you'll do:

- Grow your skillset by being involved in the full Noto process.
- Generate insight in research, ideate around opportunities, 3D model in CAD and visualise in rendering.
- Bring concepts to reality by building prototypes in our workshop.
- Inspire us by helping to design product experiences that create joyful and lasting customer connections.
- Craft holistic product stories that encapsulate brand essence from concept to completion.

Join us and be part of a team that balances excellence with passion, creating designs that are not only visually intriguing but also aim to make a positive impact in the world. At Noto, you'll thrive in a creative environment with 20 talented individuals at your side.

! We require you to be in a mandatory internship supporting your studies.
